As per the International Building Code, International Fire Code, Municipal Ordinances, and Municipal zoning codes, no one is permitted to live in any of the following: tents, campers, storage buildings, garden sheds, and garages. Permitted dwellings include stick built structures, certified modular structures on permanent foundations. Manufactured dwellings are only allowed in existing mobile home parks. These codes and ordinances are being strictly enforced for public safety. For any questions contact the Fire Chief or the Fire Marshal.

The Watkins Community Center will again sponsor a theater camp this summer. The camp will be held July 8 - 12. More information will be coming next month. To rent a room in our facility, please call Town Hall, (864)369-2466, ext. 2.

Every Friday from 11 am to 2 pm, a food truck will be available at McCall's Produce.

At Upstate Federal Credit Union, we pride ourselves on being deeply rooted in the communities we serve. Established in 1965 as Orr Mill Credit Union, we've evolved over the years, expanding our reach and services to cater to the needs of our members.

From our humble beginnings, we've grown to encompass a broader demographic. Today, UFCU serves not only the hardworking individuals of Anderson and Abbeville Counties but also the residents of Greenville, Greenwood, Laurens, Oconee, and Pickens counties.

Over the years, we've expanded our physical presence to better serve our members. From opening branches within Michelin to renovating and relocating existing offices, every step we take aims to enhance accessibility and convenience for our community. Looking ahead, we continue to invest in the communities we call home. Our upcoming full-service branch in Pendleton, SC, set to open in 2024, is just one example of our commitment to growth and service.

Join us in shaping a brighter future for our community—because local community banking isn't just what we do; it's who we are.

Live local. Shop local. Bank local.
