KIRBY'S

The Town of Honea Path is pleased to announce that Kirby Sanitation will begin handling residential pick-up and commercial dumpsters starting on September 2nd. As a locally owned and operated company, Kirby Sanitation is committed to providing our customers with superior service at a fair price. Whether you need a trash cart for your home or a dumpster for your business, we want you to see what sets us apart from the rest. You can find out more about Kirby Sanitation at kirbyupstate.com. For any questions or concerns, please get in touch with us at 864 848 1968 or Gwd@kirbyupstate.com.

The Watkins Community Center will be a site for early voting from October 21 - November 2, 8:30 to 6:00. Anyone interested in being a poll worker contact Kimberly Sorrow at: kgsorrow@andersoncountysc.org.

The Fire Department has 6 full time employees and 30 part time and volunteer employees. Department vehicles include 4 engines, 1 ladder truck, 1 quick response truck, 1 grass truck, and 3 administrative vehicles. Besides answering 1061 calls since January 1, members stay busy doing fire prevention, daily training, fire prevention education and daily station and vehicle maintenance. The department is always looking for volunteers. Applications can be found at the fire station and town hall.

The Town of Honea Path hosts a food truck event every Friday at East Greer Street Market, formerly McCall's Produce, from 11am to 2pm. Please note that the schedule is subject to change without notice.
